Description	This detached barn conversion is set in a rural location, carefully co-ordinated and furnished it makes a lovely holiday home to relax in and as such enjoys a quiet location opposite the owner's home. There are some lovely walks direct from the door with a dedicated footpath running behind the property down into the village of Lothersdale and beyond. Alternatively, the whole of the Yorkshire Dales and Brontë country can be easily accessed by car, as can the historic city of York. The bustling market town of Skipton is 6 miles, which has been voted 'Best High Street in Britain 2009'. It also features a well preserved castle
